

MEGAN VAUPEL MEMORIAL AWARD

In 2011, Megan Vaupel's friends and family created the Megan Vaupel Memorial Award Fund within the Quesnel Community Foundation. This Fund will provide financial assistance to post-secondary students, with preference given to a female or male student pursuing a career in the trades.

Megan enjoyed sports of all kinds. She was a good sport to her teammates and opponents. She also enjoyed camping and fishing trips with her family. Her many friends can attest that she had a great personality and smile and was a lover of a good prank. Her loved ones learned from Megan that we should always get as much of life as we can, today. She is sadly missed.

Application Deadline:

April 30, successful recipients notified in June.

2023 Value: $1300

CRITERIA

- Preference to a student entering Trades, including but not limited to Electrical, Power Engineering, Plumbing
- Based on financial need, academic achievement, school and community involvement (equally considered)
