

ASHLEIGH SMITH MEMORIAL AWARD

DESCRIPTION

Ashleigh Smith was a bright, beautiful young woman who attended Correlieu Senior Secondary School in Quesnel, B.C. She was involved in many causes in her life, the SPCA, support of 4-H, and Legacy of Love - Live Arts' Yellow Ribbon Suicide Prevention Program and Kersley Musical Theatre. She was active at school and in her community, passionate about her friends and her goals in life. She had post-secondary plans, but due to a tragic car accident lost her life in 2008.

She shared her passion for life with friends, family and total strangers. She vibrated onstage with an energy and vitality that let people know she was enjoying every minute of her life. One memorable thing about Ashleigh was her heart for service, and she looked forward to the future with a blazing smile that lifted hearts. Her family and friends have found a way to honour her memory by establishing the Ashleigh Smith Memorial Fund through the Quesnel Community Foundation.
